

Guitarist Paul Cesarczyk.

Guitar great joins orchestra

Brazilian guest conductor Ligia Amadio returns to the Thailand Philharmonic Orchestra for the "TPO & Guitar" concert that features soloist Paul Cesarczyk on Conductor Ligia Amadio.

the guitar at the auditorium of Mahidol University's College of Music on Aug 12 at 7pm, and again on Aug 13 at 4pm.

The programme includes Antonio Vivaldi's Lute Concerto in D Major RV 93 and Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco's Guitar Concerto No. 1 in D Major Op 99. The evening will round off with Alexander Scriabin's Symphony No. 2 in C Minor Op 29.

Paul performed at Carnegie Hall when he was just 17 years old. Among his many accomplishments are the 1995 ASCAP Aaron Copland Award and the 2001 Andres Segovia Award. He has also toured Europe and America.

Tickets cost 300 and 500 baht (100 baht for students). Call 02-800-2525-34 ext 153/4 or visit www.thailandphil.com. There's a Salaya Link shuttle bus service from Wong Wian Yai BTS station to the university. The bus will stop at exit No. 4 and the fare is 25 baht.

Shuttle schedule and information at www.music.mahidol.ac.th/salayalink.