

SOCIAL SCENE

HEALTHY LIVING: As part of Coca-Cola's "Live Positively" campaign to promote an active and healthy lifestyle, the Coca-Cola system in Thailand, led by Pornwut Sarasin (5th left), top executive and vice-chairman of ThaiNamThip Co, Ltd, recently donated 520 bicycles to Mahidol University, Salaya campus, in support of its "White Bike Project", which was initiated by the university to promote physical activity among the students, as well as reduce air pollution around the campus. The handover ceremony was attended by clinical professor Dr Piyasakol Sakolsatayadorn (4th left), MD, president of Mahidol University, along with a number of administrative board members.